Your diamond was formed approximately one billion years ago and is a unique expression of the natural world. Through your diamond, you are helping to make an enduring meaningful impact on people and the planet.

PROVENANCE

Your diamond is certified conflict-free and was discovered in Botswana by De Beers in adherence to the highest international standards for the respect of human rights.

PEOPLE

Your diamond connects you to the communities where it was discovered.

Over 80% of the value of the diamonds De Beers discovers from Botswana - such as yours - remains in country. This has helped create roads, hospitals and schools, alongside tens of thousands of jobs. Through your diamond, you are also helping to support thousands of entrepreneurs to grow their businesses across southern Africa.

PLANET

Your diamond also connects you directly to nature. Through your diamond, you are helping to safeguard 200,000 acres for conservation and the protection of vulnerable species; and the development of renewable energy supplies within southern Africa.
